

E ndorsements

- Endorsements are given when you have the qualifications to teach that certain subject. It is not required that you keep that endorsement. This endorsement does not affect your elementary or secondary certification, so you can keep it in case later you teach that subject or it can be removed at your request.