

Vocabulary Sentences

It might have important historical sites, such as a monument or the home of someone famous.

The Statue of Liberty is a monument that represents freedom.

Some neighborhoods have lots and lots of people in them, while others have only a small population.

Jasmine lives high up in the hills in a remote town far from the main village.

Your neighborhood can be made up of people of all ages, interests, and backgrounds.

You might go with your family to a large cathedral, synagogue, or mosque.

Dina went to the mosque with her family to worship.

You may have friends who go to a temple or worship in their home.

By sharing rides or using public transportation, you meet other people who live in, work in, or visit your neighborhood.

My grandmother is an elderly woman.

Babysitting, feeding neighbors' pets while they are out of town, or reading with an elderly person are neighborly ways of helping the people.

Abel and his family worshipped in a synagogue every Sabbath.