

Schools wanted to help, too. In 1882 schools began with each grade level planting a tree and taking care of it all year. Trees were given names. The date it was planted was posted. It was something students couldn't wait to do each year, so more and more trees were planted.

5

©FirstGradeFirst.com

