

K–2 MULTI-GRADE BRIDGE
Detailed Daily Lesson Plan (DDLPL)
Theme Six Daily Lesson Guide (DLG) – Brrrr! It’s Cold!
Grade K Theme Book One: The Bravest Dog Ever – The True Story of Balto/Environment
Character Building Concept: Perseverance

Days 1 – 5 Signing In/Morning Activity

SIGNING IN, p. 42 (DLG)

Standards: LA.1/2.W.7
LA.1/2.W.10

Apply common conventions of manuscript writing (e.g., left-to-right, uppercase and lowercase letters, etc.)
With support, write routinely for a range of tasks, purposes, and audiences

Students should already be grouped according to handwriting level (refer to the Signing In Rubric in Appendix C – Assessment Master 0.1).

This activity is designed for Kindergarten students. However, there may be 1st and 2nd graders who could also benefit. The students who are proficient at writing their first names could practice writing their first and last names when they sign in. Other Signing In options for a developing writer could include the following: writing a personal street address, birthday, city and state, or phone number. Students who have emerging handwriting skills should use one of the selected activities in the Stepping Stones (DLG) every day. Remember to assess student writing monthly to track handwriting progress. Additionally, formal, direct instruction in handwriting should be provided daily for grades K–2 as part of phonics and Language Arts.

* The standards for the Signing In activity will be developed throughout the Kindergarten, 1st, and 2nd grade years. Kindergarten and 1st grade students are not expected to have these standards mastered by the end of the year. Mastery of these standards is anticipated by the end of 2nd grade. ****

Day 1 – Circle Time/Morning Meeting

Puzzle Activity

CONCEPT CONNECT ACTIVITY (K–2)

Standard: LA.1/2.SL.1 Participate in collaborative conversations in diverse groups: follow agreed-upon rules

1. Students will assemble easy puzzles. They will discuss and rate the difficulty of assembling the puzzle using the 3 point rubric (Activity Master 6.1.1).

2. Students will assemble a more difficult puzzle and rate the difficulty again using Activity Master 6.1.1.
3. Lead the following discussion with students: “How many of you were ready to quit as you were doing the second puzzle? Why? Is it natural for people to want to quit an activity when it is really difficult to do? Why?” (Teacher: Be ready to share a personal experience about a time when you wanted to quit something difficult, but then decided to persevere.) “Why do you think some people might choose to keep doing something even when it is difficult? This week we will learn about a character who wouldn't give up. This is called perseverance. Everyone, please repeat: perseverance. Let's clap the syllables. Perseverance is what we do when something is really difficult, but we refuse to give up! It shows we are strong inside!”

 Send home Parent Letter (Activity Master 6.1.0) in student folders. ***

 Watch for opportunities that may arise to identify and affirm the practice of perseverance in individual students or as a group. ***

 - “Some things in our classroom are made up of liquid matter. Some examples would include: the juice we drink at lunchtime, the water we drink from the water fountain when we are thirsty, or the rain that falls from the sky.”
 - “But there is one more state of matter that we have not talked about. Matter can also turn into gas. As a matter of fact, we have gas matter all around us, and we fill our lungs with it every time we breathe. Can anyone guess what this gas matter might be?” (Allow responses.)

- “Even though we cannot see air, we know that it has matter because we can feel it and see what happens to objects when we put air inside them. Watch what happens when I blow up this balloon!” (Blow air into a small balloon to illustrate the idea that air has mass and is a form of gas matter.)
2. Distribute Activity Master 6.1.6a, pp. 1 – 2. Explain the pictures on the first page and the categorizing assignment which the children will complete independently or in cooperative groups. Use the answer key below for teacher or student self-assessment:
